Stewards spoke to Mr P. Presutto, the trainer of Magneta Gold, after Magneta Gold won and was solidly supported to do so, with the TAB. Mr Presutto advised that although Magneta Gold has been public trialling impressively of late and did win here on Sunday, the wagering activity did not emanate from the kennel, himself, or his owners. Further, that although this was a city class event, the field was not overly strong and Magneta Gold made the most of an advantageous passage throughout whilst most others encountered interference. The time of 35.12 is considered moderate. A sample was taken for analysis.
