Stewards spoke to the trainer of the greyhound Up Hill Jill, Mr. D. Geall in relation to the greyhound's below market expectation performance in this event. Mr. Geall stated that the greyhound had missed the start slightly and was checked in running and lost momentum. The greyhound was again checked in the home straight which Mr. Geall felt did not suit the greyhound's style of racing. He added that the hoop arm, along with a small field and not leading also contributed to the greyhound's poor performance. He further stated that the greyhound's lead up to the race was good and he thought the greyhound would perform well. Stewards noted Mr. Geall's explanation and took no further action.

Up Hill Jill was vetted following the event. It was reported that there was no apparent injury found. Stewards directed that a sample be taken from the greyhound - the 3rd placegetter in this event.
