Stewards spoke with Geelong Club Staff as the curtain used to secure greyhounds when pulling up was not effectively deployed for this race. As a result, three greyhounds were secured by their race-rugs as they ran past the 400m starting boxes. It was advised that the curtain was entangled and could not be stretched across the track. The matter has been referred to GRV Racing/Operation Dept. for clarification of any established procedures with staff to ensure a repeat is avoided.
