Mr Boreland told the Stewards that the greyhounds had been separated by two kennel areas and believed that the three greyhounds withdrawn became ill from a new and different batch of meat fed from the other greyhounds. Stewards directed the on-course Veterinarian, Dr Andrew Kalinowski, examine the remaining four greyhounds presented today before proceeding through the kennelling process. Dr Kalinowski was satisfied with the condition of the greyhounds and passed them fit to start.
