A false start was declared for this event, pursuant to GAR 56(1), due to the green light not being activated prior to the lure run-up. The lure was pulled up before reaching the starting boxes and the start was aborted. All greyhounds were removed from the boxes, underwent an examination by the Club Veterinary Surgeon and were passed fit to race. The lure was returned to its original starting position.
Southwood Ace was slow to begin.
Winsome Express checked off Tibby Shore in the home straight.
Following this event, Stewards spoke to Starter D. Todd, in relation to the false start and advised him the matter would be referred to the Club Manager for further consideration and remediation.
