A 10 day stand down period was imposed. The Stewards raised concerns with the steep rise in distance today for Arcanine with the Kennel Representative Mr Gerry Orr. After hearing submissions and considering the matter, the Stewards advised connections that a gradual distance progression may better suit the greyhound (to ensure satisfactory performances) rather than a steep rise in distance, even if sufficient public trialling had occurred. The Stewards left the matter with connections to manage and address moving forward.
