Mt. View Entry and Bec Mackie were slow to begin.

Write About Her, Persisted and Amy's Alone collided on the first turn checking Persisted and Amy's Alone. Bec Mackie visibly eased and pulled up on the first turn. Write About Her raced wide on the home turn. Write About Her and Amy's Alone collided several times in the home straight.

Stewards directed that the lure be eased up (into a finish-on style lure) as soon as the lure reached the finishing line to mitigate any potential danger to the greyhound Bec Mackie, who pulled up on the first turn, ran back toward the catching pen and remained unrestrained in the vicinity of the back straight. After viewing all available race footage, the Stewards were satisfied that this alternate finish had no bearing on the outcome of the event and as such, the all clear was given.

Soda Pee Wee underwent a post-race veterinary examination at the trainer's request - no apparent injury was reported.

Bec Mackie underwent a post-race veterinary examination and was found to have no apparent injury. Mr. John Musselwhite declined the option to have the greyhound re-vetted. Stewards spoke to Mr. Musselwhite regarding the greyhound's racing manners on the first turn. Acting under the provisions of GAR 69A(1) Bec Mackie was charged with failing to pursue the lure with due commitment. Mr. Musselwhite pleaded guilty to the charge, Bec Mackie was found guilty and suspended for 28 days at Cranbourne and must perform a Satisfactory Trial in accordance with GAR 69A (2) and pursuant to GAR 72, before any future nomination will be accepted.
